Forcing God's Hand – A 2025 Memorandum to the Vatican

Back in 2019, I wrote a book about Catholic prophecy entitled "Ares Le Mandat", and in the book, I undertook solving an age old mystery concerning the number of the beast, 666. As I embarked upon this quest in my early writings and drafts of "Ares Le Mandat", I laid out an brief exposition of Catholic Church history, explaining a justification for its faith and dogma, giving credence to traditional Catholic perspectives by referencing Fatima and other Catholic prophecies and warnings. I associated Vatican II with not only an egregious error, but also with the removal of the restraining force that kept society from falling into depravity and decadence. In light of this unfortunate circumstance surrounding the Church and society, I seized the moment and conveyed that now would be the perfect time to unlock the meaning of 666, seeing that this restraining force was taken out of the way.

666 is a number that has garnered much suspense because it is a number associated with Satan, the great adversary and enemy of God and God's people. In Christian tradition, 666 is defined as the number of the beast and over the centuries, there have been many attempts to figure out what and who this number stands for. Traditionally, this number is associated with a person, but others have assigned it to systems and kingdoms. In any event, there were myriad attempts by scholars and mystics alike to solve the mystery of 666. I embarked upon solving the riddle and came up with Mars 360, which is the revolution of Mars around the Sun and its influence on humanity. I used the English Sumerian Gematria to rationalize my conclusion. I then put forth a hermeneutic that foresaw things which were to come—the end times and how Mars 360 would factor into this equation. Even before 2019, I was a very active researcher in astrology and surmised Mars as having a negative influence on human behavior. Combining this outlook with my assertion of 666 equating to Mars, I was able to unlock a number of relevant associations. The main one, which I stumbled across by trying to deliberately link or force fit 666-Mars influence to events in Israel, was the timing of increased rocket attacks against Israel during configurations in the heavens where Mars is aligned in a certain manner. That alignment was Mars being within 30 degrees of the lunar node. By observing when Mars would be within 30 degrees of the lunar node within a calendar year (January thru December), I was able to find a strong correlation between the escalation of rocket fire from Gaza into Israel relative to the rest of the year. It was discovered that since 2005, Gaza militants would fire their highest intensity of rocket fire when Mars would be within 30 degrees of the lunar node within the calendar year. I made the inference that this is how Satan opposes the Jewish people, using Mars as a vehicle to inspire a higher degree of violence when it enters within a certain alignment.

In continuing my writing of "Ares Le Mandat", I then surmised that apocalyptic characters, such as the false prophet, would point to the planet Mars and make predictions in an attempt to distract people from the God of Abraham. I even devised an astrological system called "Mars 360" which I posited as something that could become a mark of the beast system used by the false prophet. However, over the course of writing the book, I would go too far. I experimented on myself and decided to audition for the role of this apocalyptic character "the false prophet", knowing full well the spiritual ramifications. But I was compelled to force God's hand by turning against Him.

In 2019, I took the leap and began to give real time predictions by observing Mars, which fomented my formal break with God and the Church and opened the door to occult influences. I would even entitle my divinatory demonstrations as a "calling down" of "fire from heaven." I had framed my findings as information that Satan wanted me to know and have maintained that all of this is part of a divine revelation. To my utmost surprise, my attempt to call down fire from heaven in the form of Gaza rockets into Israel would hold true every single year since I began predicting these events in 2019. Things would become most ominous in the year 2023, when the Oct 7th terror attack against Israel occurred within the alignment of Mars being within 30 degrees of the lunar node. A record number of rockets were fired into Israel during this time. Calling down fire from heaven is currently ongoing.

Throughout this period of divinatory demontrations since 2019, after having written what I surmised could become the mark of the beast, I would began to promote as something everyone should adhere to. Setting up a currency network called "The Mars Redback", I laid forth the foundation for a system by which no man could buy or sell without pledging an allegiance to Mars or the Mars 360 system.

Now, I can say with certainty that Revelation 13:13 has been fulfilled and the next steps to be taken involve persuading the brethren to build an image to Mars, whom I call Armaaruss, and also get people to adopt the Mars Redback currency system. Along with this should come a formal acknowledgment from the Vatican.
